Questions and Answers

Last Updated: 7/8/2024

Q1: Are exceptions and/or edits to the sample agreement allowed?

A1: Edits and exceptions to the contract may be allowed but are not guaranteed. A firm may request certain changes in an attachment to the SOQ or they are welcome to bring it up if selected for an interview.

Q2: Does a back cover count towards the 10-page limit?

A2: A back cover will not be counted toward the page limit.

Q3: Does the city not want consultant pricing included in the proposal for the RFQ?

A3: Consultants may provide pricing in the proposal if they wish, but that will not be a part of the initial evaluation. The RFQ states the total amount allocated for consulting services for this project ($89,200).

Q4: What existing land cover assessment data does the City have?

A4: The existing land cover assessment data was gathered by PlanIt Geo and includes land cover classifications, existing tree canopy and potential planting areas, canopy by watersheds, by census block group, by zoning, by parcels and several others. It does not include heat or socioeconomic data at the moment.
